U.S. Representative Raúl Labrador

represents Idaho's First District and serves on the Judiciary and Natural Resources committees. Prior to his election to Congress, Rep. Labrador was an immigration lawyer. In 2012, Rep. Labrador helped author the STEM Jobs Act, which allows legal foreign students with advanced degrees to more easily enter the U.S. workforce. Rep. Labrador is one of the Republican party's leading voices on immigration and he is part of a select group working on comprehensive federal immigration reform.

A couple may contribute up to $10,400 for the primary and up to $10,400 for the general election on a joint bank account check. Contributions by foreign nationals who are not 'green card' holders, federal contractors, national banks, and corporations are prohibited.

Amash-Labrador JFC is a joint fundraising committee composed of Justin Amash for Congress and Raul Labrador for Idaho (each individually, a "Committee" and collectively, the "Committees").

Any contributor may designate his or her contribution to a specific participating Committee(s), to the extent permissible by the FECA. Any contributor may make his or her contribution payable directly to any of the specific participating Committee(s) that are listed in this Notice. Any such designated contribution that causes the contributor to exceed the contribution limit to the designated participating Committee shall not be reallocated by Amash-Labrador JFC absent the prior written permission of the contributor as required by law.
